What Can We Expect from Our New Bishop?

Dr. Paul F. Lakeland is Professor of Religious Studies at Fairfield University and holds the Aloysius P. Kelly Chair of the Center for Catholic Studies. His books include Catholicism at the Crossroads: How the Laity Can Save the Church (2007) and The Liberation of the Laity: In Search of an Accountable Church (2004). He has frequently been asked to speak on the papacy of Francis and has chaired a 2012 conference on “Choosing a Bishop.” Here he will look to the emerging papacy of Pope Francis for indications about possible directions for the Diocese of Bridgeport under its new bishop, Frank J. Caggiano.
